

The Families First Coronavirus Response Act imposes unprecedented paid leave obligations on employers in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Understanding compliance requirements under FFCRA, federal and state unemployment laws, and OSHA will have long-lasting effects on businesses and employees.

Kean Miller will host a complimentary 60-minute webinar that will address the web of FFCRA regulations and many of the recent employment issues that intersect with your COVID-19 recovery efforts.

THE WEBINAR WILL COVER:

- Stay-home and shelter-in-place order implications for paid leave coverage
- Safe passage issues and compliance
- Parental leave conditions for childcare
- Leave documentation issues and correlation with payroll tax credit
- DOL's posting requirement and enforcement of FFCRA obligations
- Substitution, topping off, and the interaction with other forms of employer-paid leave
- Unemployment insurance
- OSHA issues
- Considerations to examine in response to an employee's return-to-work concerns
